1. Summary and risk rating

Risk rating: High · Recommendation: Do not onboard

Публичное акционерное общество "Сбербанк России" has a high risk rating due to its listing on both EU and US sanctions lists, indicating significant regulatory scrutiny. The liquidation of its European subsidiary in 2022 due to sanctions further highlights operational impacts and financial instability. Additionally, there are material data limitations regarding ownership and ultimate beneficial owners, as these have not been verified.

7. Recommendation

Do not onboard (risk rating High)

It is recommended not to onboard Sberbank due to the high risks associated with its sanctions listings and the liquidation of its European subsidiary. The potential for regulatory repercussions and financial instability poses significant concerns for compliance.

Minimum rating set by rule: Strong match on an EU/UK-listed entity (PUBLIC JOINT STOCK COMPANY SBERBANK OF RUSSIA, score 100.0); making funds or economic resources available to it is prohibited. Strong sanctions match on the company itself (JOINT STOCK COMPANY SBERBANK, score 100.0).

Next steps:

Do not enter into the relationship and make no payments or other funds available to the entity.

Inform the compliance officer and legal counsel, and record the sanctions hit and this report in the vendor file.

If the entity is already a vendor, put pending payments on hold and obtain legal advice on any reporting obligations.

Obtain a UBO declaration to clarify ownership and ultimate beneficial owners.

8. Data limitations and disclaimer

Ownership: no parent reported to GLEIF; ownership and ultimate beneficial owners (UBOs) are not verified. Obtain a UBO declaration.
